

Dinner Talk:

Tone at the Top Series 2/2016: Sustaining Business through Ethical Leadership

30th May 2016, 18.30 – 20.00 hrs. at Ballroom, Grand Hyatt Erawan Hotel

Overview

Nowadays, it has become crystal clear that companies need to do more than profit maximization to stay on the path of sustainability. Business organizations have to properly weigh benefits of all stakeholders, both internal and external, to attain sustainable growth. Steering business toward this course requires leaders with robust ethical mindset to lay righteous tone from the top and act as a role model for the rest of company staff. The IOD has invited an international expert on this matter to share his knowledge and inspire Thai business leaders. At this special event, Dr. Mukund Govind Rajan, Brand Custodian and Chief Ethics Officer of India's Tata Sons Ltd., will share his view about how ethical leadership can play a role in sustaining business as well as his extensive experiences in managing solid reputation of India's mega brand Tata. Rajan also oversees all the CSR activities and acts as Group Spokesperson for Tata. Spending more than two decades with Tata, he held several key posts across the Indian conglomerate such as the Managing Director of Tata Teleservices (Maharashtra), head of Private Equity Advisory at Tata Capital, and Managing Partner of the advisory team of the $1 billion Tata Opportunities Fund.
